

R'CLUB CHILD CARE, INC. TRAINING DEPARTMENT PRESENTS

"Are you a Summer Fun or a Summer Bum?*"

Summer programming is not a time for rest and relaxation, but it can be a time for taking pride in giving the children in your care the best summer ever!

To quote the Alice Cooper classic, "No more pencils, no more books... School's out for summer"! This is a time when children rejoice in the two full months of freedom that lay before them. However, parents still need to work and many children find themselves enrolled in a summer program for most of that time. So how can we, as childcare professionals, engage the children in our programs so that they look forward to coming each day, even though they might rather be at home? Come to this workshop to learn (and create) some new activities you can do, so that you will be known as the "Summer Fun" instead of a "Summer Bum".

*This workshop is highly interactive, so please dress comfortably so you can actively participate and make new friends!

MEET OUR TRAINERS

MaryGrace Califano, has been a Behavior Specialist with R'Club since 2016. She works closely with staff to provide training and guidance when working with children and families who may need additional support. Prior to joining the R'Club training team, MaryGrace worked as a school-age educator in New York. She holds a BA in theatre, a NYS School-Age Care Credential, and was a NYS Level 2 Credentialed Professional Development Specialist Trainer. MaryGrace has worked in the childcare field since 2002. She has trained at the NYS Network for Youth Success annual conference and was an endorser for After School Accreditation in New York. MaryGrace trains in various areas that support best practice and quality childcare, but specializes in recognizing and reporting child abuse and neglect, understanding challenging behavior, using positive guidance, and self-awareness when interacting with others.

Marshall Lester, Jr., Training Resource Coordinator has been employed with R'Club since 1996. Marshall welcomes new staff to the agency and provides orientation, training, support and technical assistance to new Child Development Specialists. Marshall also provides training on customer service, preventing sexual harassment in the workplace, and other workplace issues for all agency staff. Marshall is involved in training child care workers throughout the community and has presented at the Florida After School Alliance Conference and the annual School Age Summer's Coming Conference in Pinellas County. He is a Board member of COQEBS (Concerned Organization for Quality Education of Black Students) and, prior to joining the R'Club team, Marshall worked for Pinellas County schools for 16 years as a Health and Physical Education teacher.
